Romano Da Forno is situated in the "Val d'Ilasi", a valley to the east of Verona which, like many others, that envelope the northern of Verona. The winery located in the middle of this valley, in a flat area close to the hills, which acts as a suntrap and which is dedicated to the production of wine. For years the land was managed in ways that the vines were merely exploited in order to obtain high harvest yields. The winery evolved and they readdressed their selection process and the reclamation of varieties in recent years, in order to produce fine wines.

Romano Dal Forno位於意大利維洛那東面的伊拉西河谷，正如很多其他的酒莊，包圍著維洛那的北部。酒莊處於河谷的中部，一個接近山腳的平原，有充足的陽光給予葡萄藤生長。多年來這土地上的葡萄藤都不會為了提高產量而過份採摘。近年，為了釀造更出色的葡萄酒，他們更加緊挑選和開拓新的品種。
